POLICY STATEMENTS

APPROACH

Complaints may be made against Kordon Institute of Technology, its trainers and assessors and other staff, a learner of Kordon Institute of Technology, as well as any third-party providing services on behalf of Kordon Institute of Technology.

Complaints can be in relation to any aspect of Kordon Institute of Technology's services provided.

Appeals can be made in respect of any decision made by Kordon Institute of Technology. An appeal is a request for Kordon Institute of Technology decision to be reviewed in relation to a matter, including assessment appeals.

In managing complaints, Kordon Institute of Technology will ensure that the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the complaint process. This means reviewing each complaint or appeal in an objective and consistent manner.

Kordon Institute of Technology will appoint relevant person/s to manage complaints and appeals.

The internal complaints and appeals process will be conducted at no cost to students.

Potential causes of complaints and appeals will be investigated, and corrective and preventative action will be taken in relation to complaint and appeals. Complaints and appeals will also be seen as an opportunity for improvement.

All individuals, including third parties will be informed of allegations made and will have the opportunity to present their case.

Nothing in this policy and procedure limits the rights of an individual to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws and it does not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.

Kordon Institute of Technology encourages complainants to first seek to address the issue informally by discussing it with the person involved. However, if the person is not comfortable with this or has tried this unsuccessfully, they are to follow the procedures below.

All records of complaints and appeals will be kept by Kordon Institute of Technology and entered into the complaints and appeals register.
